Mr. Jean Munovry,

Rochester, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 1st is at hand. We regret exceedingly that illness among the members of the staff has prevented replying to your note of Jan. 21st.

Through some oversight, your copy of the 1917 Journal. (Vol. 51), was not sent from Boston at the time the others were mailed. We have been expecting the remainder to arrive for several days. As soon as they are received, a copy will be sent you. I trust you will pardon this delay, now that you are in possession of the causes of it. I have some day to have the pleasure of greeting you personally at our Museum.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir

Yours of the 16th. just reached me due to change of my address in regard to Mr. Jean Maunovry who is a member of our association whom I am unable to get in touch with.

His last address was Butte Montana from which I had a letter returned to me two days ago. In his last letter to me Mr Maunovry wrote he was leaving Butte for a trip to Yellow Stone Park but instructed me to send all mail to Butte and same would be forwarded on to him, this is all the information I can give you at this time.

However, as soon as I hear from him will gladly communicate his whereabouts to you.

Very Truly Yours
